Service Agreement and Cancellations Policy

All dogs/puppies coming to Bootcamp or attending any classes must be up to date on the Rabies and DHPP (core vaccines) and be parasite free.

They also need to be current on any Flea, Tick or Worming medications.

Bordetella vaccine (kennel cough) is recommended.

If your dog / puppy is exhibiting any of the following symptoms: diarrhea, vomiting, coughing, sneezing, lethargy or injury, or any other concerning problems, please contact me as quickly as possible so that they can be re booked for bootcamp or classes at a later date.

There are NO refunds once payment has been received and your dog or puppy has been booked in. Please remember that since I am not a kennel and the dogs live with me in my home that time and space are limited.

I am not a treat only trainer, I am a balanced trainer. That means that I reward positive behavior as well as correct negative behavior. I use a variety of collars and techniques depending on the need of the individual dog and that may include the use of a remote collar. Most of the dogs that come to me only need basic house manners but some that come here have extreme problems.

I am very committed to my clients, and I want to always be transparent about any expectations prior to registration.

Also. Please note that both pictures and videos of your dog may be posted on social media platforms so that you and the public can see what your dog / puppy has learned while here at My Bark Avenue Academy.

Additional Information

My training techniques usually take 8 days but since EVERY dog and puppy is different and learn at their own pace, it may take a day or two longer to achieve the best results.

There is an additional charge of $100.00 per day over the 8th day if needed.

If I feel that your dog or puppy has not had an, “ah ha” moment by the 7th day and I feel I need more training time, I will contact you to see if you want your puppy to stay an additional day or two.

If I feel I need more time and it is my fault due to an unexpected interruption in the training or illness, there is no charge for any extra days.

Please be advised that I do not post videos of every dog but I will gladly send you pictures of your dog or puppies progress through the week if you want.

I also want you to be aware that although I am training your dog or puppy everyday at Boot Camp there are also other dogs here, including my own dogs and many times I have past Boot Camp dogs back for a refresher.

When you come to pick up your dog or puppy please back in so you can easily see my driveway and front door, then text me that you are here.

Also, since I don't want your dog to know you are in your car please don't talk or get out, just watch as I come out and show you what your dog has learned.

When I am finished, please stay in your car until I call you to come in.

I agree and understand.
